

The diagram illustrates a table structure for a Change Log. The table has a header row labeled "Change Log" and a data row. The data row contains two columns: "Show most previous change" and "Employee who made change".

Change Log
Show most previous change	Employee who made change

Employee who made change

Employee who made change

Log out

Record or Database Table shown based on employee ID or Location